

Short biography of Martina Rudolph

Born in Hamburg, Martina Rudolph studied singing at the "Sängerakademie Hamburg" under Helga Samson. After a three-year pedagogic education at the FSP in Hamburg and a two-year additional training as a psychotherapeutic body therapist, she now works freelance since 1992. She has given guest performances and concerts in Germany, Italy (Ravello, Naples, Rome, Praiano), Spain (CD "La Brasa"), Japan and South Africa. She is touring also together with David Grant as "Duo Mondo".

Martina Rudolph teaches throughout Europe and presents masterclasses for vocal technique and artistic presentation nationally and abroad.

Voice category: Spinto

Repertoire: Her versatile skills span all genres such as opera, art-song, oratorio, operetta, including light music and jazz.

duo mondo

"duo mondo" presents you a programme including the most well-known and beautiful arias and the most splendid art-songs.

A journey, touching, inspiring and sensual

Enjoy the moment when poetry and composition melt into one-another. The virtuosity and intimacy of our performance will touch you!

more auditions see:
www.martina-rudolph.de

Short biography of David Grant

David Grant was born in Pretoria, South Africa. He was awarded a Masters' of Music with distinction at the University of Cape Town. As a national chamber-music prize-winner he left South Africa and began postgraduate studies in vocal accompaniment at the „Hochschule für Musik und Theater Hannover“ which he concluded with distinction. A subsequent post as instrumental accompanist followed there before he became a répétiteur in the voice department at the „Hightschool for Music and Theater Rostock“. He has accompanied masterclasses of Cecilia Bartoli, Brigitte Fassbaender, Dame Gwyneth Jones, Daniel Ferro, Ingrid Kremling, Klesie Kelly and Martina Rudolph.

He worked as a répétiteur at the Hamburg State Opera, the ZBF Agency and accompanied the participants in the „International Competition for Wagner Voices“ in Straßburg (1997) and Bayreuth (2003). Since September 2006 he is a répétiteur at „Theater Vorpommern“ in Stralsund/ Greifswald (GER) and is touring u.a with Martina Rudolph as "Duo Mondo".